

CodeBloom Limited

We are a technology company focused on delivering AI-powered intelligent software solutions that help organizations automate operations, improve productivity, and accelerate digital transformation. The company develops scalable, secure, and business-centric applications tailored to the needs of enterprises, SMEs, and startups.

Core Services

- AI-powered business automation solutions
- Customer Relationship Management (CRM) systems
- Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) solutions
- Custom web and mobile application development
- e-Commerce Development
- UI/UX design and IT project development
- Cloud deployment and DevOps services
- API development and third-party system integration
- IT consulting and digital transformation

Key Strengths

- Business-first approach to software development
- AI powered automation across business workflows
- Secure, scalable, and modern system architecture
- End-to-end development, from planning to deployment
- Long-term maintenance and technical support

Mission

To empower organizations with innovative technology that simplifies business operations, enhances customer experience, and drives sustainable growth through intelligent digital solutions.